TOTAL ENTRY FEES :

STALLS: Stalls are mandatory, there is no tying to the trailer overnight and there is absolutely no horses allowed in the RV parking area at the North end of the arena or on the pavement on the North side of the stall area. Fines will be imposed for failure to comply with these rules as the Lynden Jr Rodeo will be charged by the Fairgrounds for non-compliance.

Stalls will be assigned, please identify how many stalls you will need. All stalls are 10'x10' and are not matted, you may bring mats if you wish. One bale of shavings will be supplied with each stall (Tractor Supply is located within 3 minutes of the grounds) or you can purchase additional bales from the fairgrounds for $10 each. Once you have opened your stalls they are yours for the weekend, we will be charged for them if your horse is in them or not. The stalls are $18 per night.

All stalls have to be stripped at the end of the weekend. Please bring what you will need to take care of this as the grounds does not supply forks or wheelbarrows. I am sure there will be a group that would be willing to strip your stall for you for a fee. If you do not clean out your stalls when you are done for the weekend you will be charged an additional $10 per stall that will be due at the next rodeo. Please be kind and clean up after yourself, we are guests and we may want to return next year.

How many stalls will you need: at $18 per night for nights =

CAMPING: All campers will be required to pay $20 per night to stay on the grounds wether you are hooked up or dry camping, this is a fairgrounds and they charge for all campers.

How many camping nights will you be on the grounds: at $20 each
